CONSERVATION IN ACTION

Kamon Farm | Ipswich

Kamon Farm represents Greenbelt's conservation work in action, 95 stunning acres conserved in 2021 to protect drinking water, working farmland, climate resilience, wildlife habitat and free, public trail access. This project was made possible with generous support from Greenbelt Corporate Conservationists.

LOCAL BUSINESSES LEAD BY EXAMPLE

NEIL UNGERLEIDER

(CST) committed to becoming a 1% for the Planet member in 2022 with the goal to significantly increase their commitment to their environmentally-focused non-profit partners like Greenbelt.

"Committing 1% of our total yearly revenue to this goal is an exciting step forward for us... we know that this [investment] will be used to further support Greenbelt's amazing programming and the hard work of protecting our open spaces for generations to come."

— Krystyna Hincman, Director of Corporate Social Responsibility

INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS

BUILDING STRONGER COMMUNITIES TOGETHER SINCE 1820.

In 2015, the same year IFS pledged $1M to Greenbelt's Campaign for 10,000 Acres, they also generously supported the inaugural Tour de Greenbelt – Cycle for Land Conservation as the lead Presenting Sponsor.

Today, IFS remains the Tour's Presenting Sponsor and has pledged to increase their commitment to Greenbelt over the next five years.
